PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 Special Condition #18: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Robert Ibarra violated conditions of his supervised release by failing to appear for urinalysis testing on December 21, 2009. Consequently, Mr. Ibarra was ordered to appear in the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane, Washington. On December 22, 2009, Mr. Ibarra provided a urine specimen which was presumptive positive for cocaine metabolites. On January 5, 2010, laboratory results reflected a diluted sample relative to the specimen validity status. Although the sample returned negative for cocaine metabolites, the referenced sample showed abnormal readings for specific gravity. It is the undersigned's opinion the offender consumed a substance in order to mask illicit drug use.

- 2 Special Condition #17: You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, including aftercare. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising probation officer and treatment provider.

Re: Ibarra, RobertFebruary 9, 2010*Page 2

Supporting Evidence: On January 27, 2010, Robert Ibarra was directed to depart a substance abuse treatment class as he failed to bring the necessary material for the session, as directed. Also, on February 3, 2010, Mr. Ibarra was again dismissed from class for failing to be prepared for the upcoming lesson. Following both instances, the offender was verbally reprimanded by the undersigned officer.

- 3 Special Condition #18: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Robert Ibarra violated conditions of his supervised release on or about February 3, 2010. On this date, Mr. Ibarra was summoned to the U.S. Probation Office in Spokane, Washington, for urine testing. The sample was tested and returned a presumptive positive reading for methamphetamine. The offender signed an Admission of Drug Use form and verbally acknowledged use of methamphetamine on or about February 1, 2010.

- 4 Supporting Evidence: Mr. Ibarra violated conditions of his supervised release on or about February 4, 2010, by submitting a urine specimen that showed presumptive positive for methamphetamine.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
